

GODINTON HOUSE & ASHFORD OUTLET

We depart in the morning for the drive to Godinton House, a remarkable country house, nestled in the heart of Kent. Dating back to the 14th century, the house today reflects the tastes of the last owner, Alan Wyndham Green: it is designed to feel comfortable and more informal than other properties – a house, rather than a museum, so that visitors can imagine what life might have been like here. We are welcomed with tea/coffee and biscuits before our guided tour of the house with time to the garden before our ploughman's lunch. We will depart at 14.00 for the short trip to Ashford Outlet for a spot of retail therapy.
