

WINCHESTER FARMERS MARKET

Famous for being featured on Rick Stein's food programme, Winchester Market can claim to be one of the largest farmers' markets in the country. Held in the heart of the historic cathedral city, with over 30 stalls attending selling meat, game, cheese, milk, cream, ice cream, honey, breads, cakes, fresh and smoked fish, a large variety of fruits and vegetables and apple juice. Stroll around the huge range of stalls and sample some of the best produce that Hampshire has to offer. Stop and rest for a while and enjoy a coffee or sample the popular Hog Roast and mulled wine. Plus, for the gardening enthusiast there are a range of plants, shrubs and trees.
