

KENSINGTON PALACE

Join us in the morning for our journey to Kensington Palace, was once a small and suburban villa, known as Nottingham House. New monarchs William III and Mary II chose this modest mansion in 1689 to be their country retreat. Over the years, Stuart and Georgian monarchs transformed the palace into a fashionable home for Britain's young royal families. Queen Caroline shaped the palace and gardens, and Queen Victoria spent her childhood here. Kensington Palace has been home to Diana, Princess of Wales, Princess Margaret and The Duke and Duchess of Sussex. It is also the London home of The Duke and Duchess of Cambridge and their children. Please be aware The King's Drawing Room, The Cupola Room and Queen Caroline's Closet will all be closed for planned maintenance work at the time of our visit.
