

THE CHARTERHOUSE

We start the morning on our drive to London, where we will make our drop off point (approx. 5 mins walk). The Charterhouse is a former Carthusian monastery located between the barbican and Smithfield market. Here we will then have our 1 hour tour led by our professional guides (in 2 small groups) of The Charterhouse, visiting the main rooms and courtyards of the historic House. You will then have time to find lunch at the café or within the vicinity. Afterwards you will then have your free time to visit the Museum that tells the story of the Charterhouse from the Black Death to the present day, the Chapel and shop at your leisure
