

LEEDS CASTLE FIREWORKS

Dubbed as the South East's biggest and best fireworks display, you will admire the space-themed fireworks show paired with a complementing full production of projections and lasers onto the castle, ending with a mesmerising lighting finale.

Arriving from 2pm to enjoy use of the castle's grounds including the maze, play areas, adventure golf* (*additional fees apply), falconry displays (3pm) and scenic strolls around the Mediterranean gardens and along the great water's edge, all before gathering for the ever-popular grand firework display at 5:30pm. With accompanying live music played to space-themed songs, like Rocketman by Elton John, Starlight by Muse and Rewrite The Stars by The Greatest Showman, there will be something for all to sing and dance to during the captivating showcase. There will also be lots of different street food pop-ups, serving British and internationally themed food and drink, with something for all tastes.
