

WESTMINSTER ABBEY TOUR WITH EVENSONG

Mid-morning, we make our way to London to visit Westminster Abbey, we will meet the Blue Badge Guide at midday for time to buy lunch in Parliament Square. We will then take our tour of Westminster Abbey and see how the mediaeval architects created a theatre for coronations and see some of the Abbeys most curious secrets. You'll also see the Shrine of Edward the Confessor and the Tomb of the Unknown Warrior. In the Henry VII Chapel beneath a sublimely beautiful fan vaulted ceiling, the banners of the Knights and Dames Grand Cross of The Most Honourable Order of the Bath hang. We visit Poets Corner and see where the ashes of Professor Stephen Hawking were interred next to Sir Isaac Newton. then sit back to enjoy a really entertaining coach tour that places names from the Abbey into their locations in London. Next, after time for a light bite, instead of joining the rush hour we take a seat at 5.00pm to see the Abbey at work with Choral Evensong. You'll head for home at 6.15pm.
