

SUSSEX & THE PRAIRIE GARDENS

Join us to visit the Upper Adur Valley in West Sussex - dotted with pretty villages and beautiful views. Meet our guide in Bramber for morning coffee & biscuits). We then have an entertaining and scenic coach tour including Jonathan Creek's windmill ends back in Bramber where we sit down for a one course chicken lunch. In the afternoon we're off to the unique Sussex Prairie Garden - a joyful kingdom cradled by the rolling South Downs. Huge, dazzling beds are choc full with romantic clouds of boldly coloured perennials and tall plants form great swathes of colour. This joyful kingdom sits in an eight acre grassy field cradled by the rolling South Downs. Look up from inside this natural bowl and, above a ring of mature oaks, you can see an Iron Age Fort known as the Chanctonbury Ring. After an introduction with the owner you can wander through this wonderland. Tea and delicious home-made cake is included and you'll be ready to head home at 4.45pm.
