

THE MUSICAL MUSEUM

Join us mid-morning on our journey to the Hillier Garden Centre, Syon Park, where we will have time to find lunch before heading to The Musical Centre, for an afternoon which usually involves live instruments including our delicate musical boxes, reproducing pianos, organs and self-playing violins, the visit concludes in the concert hall, where the Mighty Wurlitzer theatre organ can be demonstrated during a Christmas themed concert. The Musical Museum tells the fascinating story of how people have captured and listened to music over the last four centuries. From tiny music boxes to the Mighty Wurlitzer, the collection includes an impressive array of instruments and inventions, orchestrions, pipe organs, gramophones & synthesizers. Find out how music was recorded and reproduced, see and hear them in action.
