

PASHLEY MANOR GARDENS, TICEHURST

&

GREAT DIXTER HOUSE & GARDENS, NORTHLAM

Begin your day in the traditional splendour of the gardens at Pashley Manor followed by a delicious lunch from the Garden Room Café. (not included in the price) and then on to Great Dixter House and Gardens. Pashley Manor is a quintessential English garden located on the Sussex and Kent border in the heart of South East England's garden country. Pashley offers a sumptuous blend of romantic landscaping, imaginative planting and fine old trees, complimented by beautiful fountains and ponds.

Great Dixter is an historic house built in 1910 by Edwin Lutyens and is a Grade 1 listed building with fabulous gardens which are widely known for their traditional sophisticated planting. The Trust are dedicated to protecting the house and to maintaining the quality and unique atmosphere of Great Dixter. The surrounding estate with its meadows and ancient woodland are all managed in the traditional manner to maximise biodiversity and sustainability.
