

A DAY AT WHITSTABLE

We depart in the morning for a day by the sea at Whitstable, a seaside town on the north coast of Kent, 2 miles west of Herne Bay. It is famous for its 'Native Oysters' which were collected from beds beyond the low watermark from Roman times until the mid-20th century. Spend the day as you wish, visit the sights of Whitstable Castle where you can take afternoon tea or simply wander around its well-kept gardens and manicured lawns or visit one of the tiny art galleries.
