

A TRIP TO SALISBURY

We start our journey travelling South West to the market town of Salisbury well known for its magnificent cathedral. We will stop half way on our journey at Fleet services for a comfort break and we will stop on our return journey again at Fleet services. When we arrive in Salisbury there is much to see and do. There is Mompesson house a 13th century manor house, the Rifles of Berkshire and Wilshire museum which has a very nice tea room, and Arundells the former residence of Edward Heath and of course the wonderful cathedral all to visit. If you prefer you can wander and explore the quaint shops and picturesque riverside all making for an enjoyable day before heading home.
