

ROMNEY, HYTHE & DYMCHURCH RAILWAY

Once you have journeyed to the picturesque Cinque port town of Hythe here you will board the Romney, Hythe & Dymchurch Railway which runs for 13 ½ miles. You will travel the full length of the railway, through the seaside village of Dymchurch, towards New Romney where it will stop for half an hour and finally reaching the National Nature Reserve of Dungeness which has the largest expanse of shingle in Europe. Here you can see the old lighthouse and the fishermen's huts or if you prefer visit the local inn before catching the train back to Hythe at 2.55pm, where the coach will be waiting for your journey home.
