

A DAY AT LEWES

At the heart of rural Sussex lies the beautiful county town of Lewes - a mixture of the unusual and intriguing and so typically Sussex. With Its medieval streets, old English churches and tiny twittens (a Sussex word for alleyway) allow visitors a glimpse into the true essence of bygone Lewes. Although surrounded by chalk cliffs, the townscape is dominated by the remains of a Norman castle and is also home to the handsome townhouse of Anne of Cleves The days is yours to visit Anne of Cleves House, Lewes Castle, Harvey's Castle, Lewes Priory or shop at some of the small specialist, independent retailers.
