

WEALD & DOWNLAND LIVING MUSEUM

We depart in the morning for the beautiful Sussex countryside, where you will spend the day at the Weald and Downland Living Museum, where the current series of The Repair Shop is filmed, set in 40 acres you will be free to wander amongst a rich variety of working buildings, that represent the crafts and trades of inhabitants of this region. Many of the interiors have been furnished, recreating the way the buildings were used by their owners centuries ago. Take time to enjoy waterside dining at the Museum's café, with fantastic views across the mill pond, with a range of sandwiches, hot food, snacks and cakes alongside hot and cold drinks are available.
