

ARDINGLY WINTER FAIR

Join us on the drive to the South of England Showground in Haywards Heath, for the Ardingly Winterfair. Where you can shop until you drop from a large selection of stalls boasting artisan products, gifts, and food and drink from independent and local vendors. But It's not just about the shopping; there's also festive fun to be had. A street food area featuring live music, plus a funfair, and a Santa's Grotto are also part of the weekend. As if that weren't enough, festive workshops will include wreath-making and chocolate decorating for those who want to test their creative abilities and a new winter cheer workshop for some wassailing fun. In addition, the shopping area is filled with beautiful and delicious gifts made by local artists, traders and producers. The Winter Fair really is the perfect way to get into the festive spirit and kick off your Christmas preparations.
