

STANDEN HOUSE, EAST GRINSTEAD

In Spring 1891 James and Margaret Beale enlisted the architect Philip Webb to lead the project to build Standen House, and it was home to the Beale family for nearly 80 years, until 1971. It is a beautiful and well looked after Arts & Crafts house, with many artefacts and Morris pieces. The location is a peaceful place and the beautiful and versatile garden, features picturesque views over the landscape. There is a lovely well equipped Barn Café selling seasonal lunches and homemade cakes and also a secondhand bookshop and gift shop including Morris & Co inspired gifts, textiles and ceramics with a range of seasonal plants.
