

THE ORIGINAL COCKNEY MUSEUM

The Original Cockney Museum takes you on a thrilling tour all the way back to the 1800's to a London that has now been long forgotten. You will walk down Poverty Street and see the dreadful conditions people lived in. When you reach the flower ladies and market square you will meet the market traders. After this you will find the Pearly Kings & Queens in full costume and you will be able to view the many artefacts dating back some 179 years. The museum is the dream of George Major who is extremely knowledgeable and only too pleased to share his passion with the visitors. At the end of your tour before returning home, you will be able to enjoy Manze pie and mash in the museum café and visit the gift shop.
