

GREENWICH OLD ROYAL NAVAL COLLEGE

CHRISTMAS CAROL CONCERT

We will start our journey towards London and before we reach Greenwich we will have a short refreshment stop at Ruxley Manor Garden Centre, where you will be able to find lunch before we carry on to the Old Royal Naval College. The concert will be held in the beautiful Chapel of St Peter & St Paul, which is considered to have one of the finest neo-classical interiors. You will be able to enjoy the Christmas carols delivered by the award-winning Trinity Laban Chapel Choir and have the chance to join in and sing some of your festive favourites. After the concert a drink and mince pie will be served in the Old Brewery at 3.30pm, and we will be leaving the college at 16.15pm to return home. Included in your visit, is entry to the Painted Hall known as the 'Sistine Chapel of the UK' with its magnificent 3,700 square metres of walls and ceilings, depicting 200 figures including kings, queens and mythological creatures.
