

WHITCHURCH SILK MILL

Itinerary

We will travel down to Whitchurch in Hampshire to the Grade II heritage silk mill which was constructed in the 1800's on the River Test. The mill is a living museum and brings to life the meticulous skills and crafts involved in using the looms. There are only three silk ribbon weavers still working in the UK and their knowledge of this craft is fascinating and must not be allowed to disappear. Included in our visit is a light lunch in the mill café
