

SNOWDROPS AT WELFORD PARK, NEWBURY

Itinerary

We will start our day travelling Southwest to Newbury and during our journey there will be a short comfort break at Reading Services. On our arrival at the Park, we will be offered tea and coffee before we start exploring. Welford Park is better known to most people as the home of the Great British Bake Off, but at the end of winter it has one of the best snowdrop collections in the UK. There are approximately 5 acres of beech woods carpeted with snowdrops which line the banks of the River Lambourne. Make sure you wrap up warm as you walk around and enjoy the swathes of snowdrops, hellebores, aconites and winter flowering shrubs. When you have finished your walk, you can head to the tea tent for a bite to eat and warming drink. There is also the gift shop which deserves a visit before returning home after your lovely day out.
