

DAY TRIP TO HERNE BAY, KENT

Itinerary

Enjoy a day at Herne Bay the seaside town on the north coast of Kent just a little east of Whitstable and the ancient villages of Herne and Reculver being nearby. This seaside town was home to the first world's free-standing purpose-built clock tower built in 1837, and the lovely seafront is just right to take a stroll along and enjoy the sea air and colourful gardens. Refreshments can be found in many of the cafes and eateries on the main High Street.
