

A Day at Faversham

We set off on our journey into the heart of Kent to the quaint town of Faversham. Faversham is mentioned in the Domesday Book and has many old medieval streets to wander through. It has been home to the oldest brewer in Britain, Shepherd Neame since 1698. By the 19th century it was the centre of the nation's explosive industry and manufacture of gunpowder.

Coach to drop off and collect at the Bus stop corner of Stone Street and Preston Street.
