

A Day at Salisbury

We start our journey travelling Southwest to the market town of Salisbury well known for its magnificent cathedral. We will stop halfway on our journey and on the return at Fleet services for a quick comfort break. When we arrive in Salisbury there is much to see and do. There is Mompesson house a 13th century manor house, the Rifles of Berkshire and Wiltshire Museum which has a very nice tearoom. There is Arundell's the former residence of Edward Heath and of course the wonderful cathedral to visit. If you prefer you can wander and explore the quaint shops and picturesque riverside all making for an enjoyable day out.
