

A Day at Cambridge

Itinerary

Join us for a day in Cambridge where you can have a peaceful stroll along the River Cam, watching punts glide past the lush college backs. Wander through the historic city centre, exploring iconic sights like King's College Chapel and the Bridge of Sighs. Stop in a cosy café or traditional pub for lunch before spending the afternoon punting—either hiring a guide or trying it yourself for a bit of fun. Later, browse the Fitzwilliam Museum or enjoy the shops and market in the central square or walk through the Botanic Garden or a riverside dinner as the sun sets over this charming university city.
