

Belmont House & Gardens

Itinerary

A trip to Belmont House & Gardens offers a delightful day out to this elegant country estate. Within the house itself lies three exciting collections. The armoury, which was gathered by five generations of the Harris family, Lords of the estate for over 200 years. The Cazabon collection, the finest set of Cazabon paintings in Britain. The Clock Museum, showcasing an extraordinary horological collection created by the 5th Lord Harris.

Visitors will enjoy a guided tour of the house, gaining insight into its history and beautifully maintained interiors, before having time to explore the surrounding gardens at their leisure. The visit also includes a traditional ploughman's lunch, making for a thoroughly enjoyable and leisurely experience in a charming setting.
