

A DAY IN SALISBURY

Itinerary

We travel southwest to the market town of Salisbury in Wiltshire which is well known for its magnificent cathedral. Enroute we will stop for a short comfort break at Fleet services. There is much to see once you arrive in the town first and foremost the wonderful cathedral with its beautiful spire, or if you prefer Mompession House a 13th century manor house, the Rifles of Berkshire & Wiltshire museum which has a nice tea room and Arundell's the former resident of Edward Heath all interesting places and well worth seeing. If you prefer shopping you can wander through the quaint streets and check out the local eateries, and there is the picturesque riverside to walk beside all making for an enjoyable day out.
