CANTERBURY CHRISTMAS MARKET

Itinerary

Canterbury Christmas Market is one of the biggest and most atmospheric festive events, blending medieval streets, cathedral grandeur, and over a hundred wooden chalets into a compact winter wonderland. Celebrate Christmas at this traditional festive market in the medieval city centre adorned with beautiful sparkling lights. The heart of the market is in the shopping district of Whitefriars. The pretty traditional wooden huts in the Bavarian style selling gifts, treats and Christmas wares offering something for everyone. There are stalls selling delicious food you can tuck into such as German bratwurst and sugary doughnuts, as well as a visit to one of the many coffee shops. If you prefer something different be sure to visit the unique cathedral which was founded by St Augustine in 597 AD and holds the tomb of Thomas A Beckett.
