

ORCHIDS AT KEW GARDENS, LONDON

Itinerary

We start put journey to the Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew which is the world famous scientific and horticultural institution comprising 132 hectares of historic landscaped gardens dating back to 1759. We have an allocated time slot for our visit to view the iconic orchid festival with its unique flora and fauna of Peru. The landscapes range from beaches to rainforests, deserts and mountains and shows over 3000 species of orchids. The flower displays and living sculpture show the beautiful and biodiversity and the wonderful colours of the many varieties which are stunning and should not be missed.
